Message from Miss Taunt

Dear Families

This week we're talking attendance. Attendance every day is so important so that children can learn and maintain good relationships with friends and staff. Every day missed of education really counts. Over 150 children at Belmore missed a day of school last week.

Children can come to school

- if they have a cough or a cold
- if their brother or sister is off sick
- if you have given them medicine in the morning
- if they have a late night or are tired

Children should stay off school

- If they have a high temperature
- If they have sickness or diarrhoea
- If they have an illness which is on this list - How long should you keep your child off school - checklist poster \(text version\) - GOV.UK \(www.gov.uk\)

If you're not sure if your child is well enough. Please bring them to school, we have Mrs Marsh as our full time Welfare and Medical Officer who is able to take children's temperature and phone you if they are unwell during the day. Please can I remind you that all holidays during term time will be unauthorised and you may be fined.

We want to see your children in school every day.

Have a great weekend and see you all on Monday!

Rose Taunt
